Welcome to my Purple Princess Bracelet Tutorial! In this tutorial, I will show you how to make a beautiful and unique purple princess bracelet. This bracelet is perfect for any occasion, and it's sure to make you feel like a princess.

The Purple Princess Bracelet is made with a variety of purple beads, including amethyst, sugilite, and lepidolite. These beads are all said to have calming and soothing properties, making this bracelet perfect for wearing when you need to relax or de-stress.

In addition to the purple beads, the Purple Princess Bracelet also features silver beads and a silver clasp. The silver beads add a touch of elegance to the bracelet, and the silver clasp is strong and secure.

The Purple Princess Bracelet is easy to make, and it's a great project for beginners. With just a few simple steps, you can create a beautiful and unique piece of jewelry.

Materials

*

- 10mm amethyst beads

*

- 8mm sugilite beads

*

- 6mm lepidolite beads

*

- 4mm silver beads

*

- Silver clasp

*

- Beading wire

*

- Crimp beads

*

- Wire cutters

Instructions

1. Cut a piece of beading wire about 24 inches long. 2. String 10 amethyst beads onto the wire. 3. String 5 sugilite beads onto the wire. 4. String 3 lepidolite beads onto the wire. 5. String 2 silver beads onto the wire. 6. Repeat steps 2-5 until you have about 3 inches of wire left. 7. String 2 silver beads onto the wire. 8. String 3 lepidolite beads onto the wire. 9. String 5 sugilite beads onto the wire. 10. String 10 amethyst beads onto the wire. 11. Thread the wire through the silver clasp. 12. Crimp the wire to secure the clasp. 13. Trim any excess wire.

Tips

* You can use any type of beads you like to make this bracelet. * If you don't have crimp beads, you can use a knot to secure the wire. * Be sure to leave enough wire on the ends to attach the clasp.
