

Ten Years of The World Haiku Review: Tenth Anniversary Edition

The World Haiku Review (WHR) is a quarterly journal dedicated to the art of haiku poetry. It was founded in 2008 by editor-in-chief, Robert Lee Brewer, and has since become one of the most respected and influential publications in the haiku world.

In 2018, WHR celebrated its tenth anniversary with the publication of a special edition, the Tenth Anniversary Edition. This 240-page volume is a comprehensive retrospective of the journal's first decade, featuring a selection of the best haiku and essays published in WHR over the years.
