

The Sudan: Past and Present - Khogali Publications

The Sudan: Past and Present is a comprehensive and authoritative book that provides a detailed examination of the history, culture, and politics of Sudan from its earliest origins to the present day.

The book is divided into four parts. The first part, "The Pre-Colonial Period," covers the period from the earliest human settlement in Sudan to the establishment of the Mahdist state in 1885. The second part, "The Colonial Period," covers the period from the British conquest of Sudan in 1898 to the country's independence in 1956. The third part, "The Post-Independence Period," covers the period from independence to the present day. The fourth part, "The Culture and People of Sudan," provides a detailed overview of the country's culture, people, and society.
